DAMAGE SUIT AGAINST TIMBER COMPANY ENDS
Jury Reaches Verdict in Spencer Versus Morris Case in District Court Yesterday Evening.

After being out for two hours yesterday evening, the jury in the case of B. B. Spencer versus the Morris Timb. Co., a co-partnership in which were interested the Cross Kelly company, Richard Dunn and E. E. Wheeler, which had been before the second judicial district court for three days, rendered a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $2,322.00, and for the defendant in the sum of $2,388.25, leaving a balance in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $54.25, being just about the sum, with interest, tendered by the defendants to the plaintiff prior to the trial of the case.

The case was originally brought for an alleged violation of contract and for damages in the sum of $12,000.00, but this was increased to $15,000.00 by a supplement petition filed before the defense witnesses were taken the stand.

The case has occupied the attention of the court since last Wednesday, the final argument and the instructions of Judge Abbott not being concluded until 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.
